"Godless Efficiency" His Theme.

"Godless Efficiency" will be the subject of Prof. A. W. Taylor's sermon before the Jewish Students' Congregation at 7:30 o'clock Sunday night in the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium.

Professor Taylor will emphasize the tendency of certain students of science to divorce ethical values from the world of science. He will show that ethical suasion holds in education, commerce, industry, science and nationality. The part that efficiency has played in overturning the standards of morality will be taken into account.

PRAISES COSMOPOLITAN CLUB

Charles F. Loomis of Hawaii Speaks of Union of East and West.

"It was in the Cosmopolitan Club that I first learned to take off my hat to other races," said Charles F. Loomis of Kanai, T. H., when addressing the Cosmopolitan Club Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A. Building.

Mr. Loomis was one of the charter members of the Missouri chapter of the Cosmopolitan Club when he was a student at the University.

Mr. Loomis emphasized the great diversity of races in the Hawaiian Islands. "This situation shows that the Occident and Orient can find a common basis of agreement and can live happily together," said Mr. Loomis.

The Cosmopolitan Club will hold open house at the Union Building at 8 o'clock Wednesday night, December 5.
